THE WORKS SPORTS ACADEMY Shooting/Offensive Skills Camps Boys & Girls : Ages 9 - 16

THE WORKS SPORTS ACADEMY

The Works' 2007 Nike Basketball Camps were so successful and well-attended that we've added more camps to accommodate everyone who's interested and to provide venues that are convenient for our campers.

Our unique sports performance systems take you to your next level using flexibility, balance and core training coupled with intense agility, quickness and footwork drills. Combine all of these with master drills in shooting, dribbling, passing and rebounding and you've got The Works! Imagine being able to do ladder drills while dribbling and shooting at the same time. It is an experience you won't want to miss. With an 8:1 camper to instructor ratio, we will take you to your next level this summer!

Whether you want to get off the end of that bench, learn how to be a better athlete or just be the player you want to be, this is the place to do it. Join The Works and Nike Basketball Camps this summer to skyrocket your fundamentals, skills and team play!

CAMP STAFF

We pride ourselves with the caliber of the individuals working to bring you the highest level of cutting edge training and development. The Works' staff is comprised of experienced, coaches, athletes and educators all thoroughly trained and certified to teach The Works' unique programs and we endeavor to match our trainers to your needs and goals.

Founder, Pete Rivas

Pete Rivas is a former Division I men's basketball assistant coach and former head high school basketball girls and boys coach. Pete founded The Works with a desire to reach the athlete who needs help leveling the playing field in a storm of elite and over-trained young athletes. He has assembled a staff of trainers, educators, coaches and former collegiate and high school players to do just that. With over 26 years of coaching experience and knowledge, Pete leads The Works with his passion for helping young players be safe, healthy and successful in their athletic endeavors.
